Bahrain targets ICT to become fintech hub

Bahrain's Economic Development Board (EDB) has made the kingdom a data destination for Amazon and is now keen to leverage the Kingdom's telecoms connectivity and IT knowledge pool to become a regional fintech hub, said a top official.

Khalid Al Rumaihi, CEO of EDB, was addressing the delegates of the 10th annual conference of chartered accountants of India yesterday (November 24) about Bahrain's management of change in its quest for progress.
