

Students of grade six to 13 attended a motivational conference held by the British School of Bahrain (part of its International Women's Day celebrations). The panellists were Annada founder Nada Alawi, Authority for Culture and Antiquities communication and promotion directorate director Huda Abdu Alalawi, Bahrain Trust Foundation chief executive Dr Fatima Al Baiosshi and British Schools in the Mid CEO Olivia Roth. The BSB students were joined by St Christopher's School students. Above, the p. and, right, students at the event.

The Bahrain Chapter of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (BCICAI) hosted a seminar to celebrate International Women's Day. Indian Embassy Second Secretary Renu Yadav was guest of honour and keynote speakers were Khalil Bin Ebrahim Kanoo president Suzy Kanoo and SriPriya Kumar, a former member of ICAI Central Council in India. The event, held at the Crowne Plaza Bahrain, was also attended by BCICAI chairman Sridhar Seethapathy and vice-chairman Maheshkumar Narayan. Above, participants in the event. Inset, top left, Ms Kumar and, top right, Ms Kanoo speaking at the seminar.