

Danat launches app for pearl and gemstone examination

● The app launched during Jewellery Arabia Exhibition

TDT | Manama

The Bahrain Institute for Pearls and Gemstones (Danat) has launched a new smartphone application for viewing the results of pearls, diamonds and gemstones examinations. The app, launched during Jewellery Arabia Exhibition at the Exhibition World Bahrain in Sakhiir, allowed buyers to immediately view the results of their purchases from gemstone and jewellery houses.

"They received a certificate of authentication on their mobile phones, following the examination at the Danat laboratory's special stand at the expo."

Danat also had on display Bahraini natural pearls, oyster shucking, and other accompanying activities at the expo.

One particularly notable highlight was Danat's hosting of the historian and scion of the famous Cartier family, Francesca Cartier Brickell.

The CEO of Danat Institute, Noora Jamsheer, said that Danat's participation in Jewellery Arabia had surpassed expectations. "This was especially pleasing as the participation was taking place for the first time at the new Exhibition World Bahrain in Sakhiir."

Jamsheer said the newly

Saudi extends term for $5 bn deposit in Egypt's c.bank-state media

Reuters | Cairo

Saudi Arabia has extended the term for a $5 billion deposit it made to Egypt's central bank, state news agency SPA said yesterday, without saying how long the extension would be.

In March, Saudi Arabia made a $5 billion deposit in the central bank as Egypt came under increasing financial pressure following Russia's invasion of Ukraine, which pushed up oil and wheat prices and hit tourist numbers from Russia and Ukraine.

Gulf states have deposited at least $13 bn with Egypt's central bank to support its economy so far this year, bringing their total deposits to $28 bn, according to central bank and finance ministry data. That includes a further $5.3 bn of longer-term deposits from Saudi Arabia due to mature in the second half of 2026.

Arab Bank named "Best Service Bank" in Bahrain in Euromoney Cash Management Survey 2022

TDT | Manama

Arab Bank ranked first as the "Best Service Bank" in Bahrain as voted by Corporates according to the global Euromoney Cash Management Survey 2022, a reference survey for the global cash management industry.

The Cash Management survey examines customer feedback around financial services provided by banks to evaluate best cash management service providers and rank them based on the survey results across financial and banking markets.

This year, the survey collected responses from over 21,000 customers across different markets around the world, including Bahrain.

This ranking complements Arab Bank's significant success record and recognizes the bank's cash management offering in light of the digital transformation era. The ranking also reflects Arab Bank's constant efforts in deploying the latest banking services and solutions in the industry for the corporate sector.

Nadya Talhouini, Country Manager at Arab Bank - Bahrain, said: "This global recognition reaffirms Arab Bank's constant efforts in providing the latest banking services to its customers across the corporate sector and others in Bahrain."
